

The A to Z of Capítulo Uno

Here are some sample sentences for practice. Sentences like these will appear on your chapter test with either one of these two directions:

- Translate this sentence into Spanish (Traduzca esta oración al español.)
- Write a QUESTION that would prompt this sentence/statement as a response; then TRANSLATE this sentence/statement into Spanish.

- A) My French teacher gives the stapler to Jaime.
- B) I give the new student a school book.
- C) I know the answer.
- D) I have a question.
- E) I bring a blue school bag to class.
- F) She knows geography.
- G) The principal speaks three languages.
- H) The German teacher drew a map on the wall.
- I) She answered the question.
- J) I answered the question.
- K) You got a good grade on your biology exam.
- L) The building has a cafeteria and a stage.
- M) Where is the pencil sharpener?
- N) Who has a paperclip?
- O) We have to turn in our homework each day.
- P) The chemistry lesson is interesting.
- Q) It is permitted to drink water in history class.
- R) It is prohibited to do math homework in literature class.
- S) It is permitted to write compositions in language class.
- T) It is prohibited to use slides for reports.
- U) What page is the problem on?
(Tricky! Think proper English "On what page is the problem?" before translating!)
- V) Luckily, the test (big one! not the cognate) is on Thursday.
- W) The clock is on the wall.
- X) The counselor explains and reviews the school rules.
- Y) We line up at the salad bar for lunch.
- Z) I asked a question in Spanish class.